CATECHIST PLANNING

ARCHDIOCESAN CURRICULUM STANDARDS ADDRESSED IN CHAPTER 21:

- .01.05 State how the desire for God is written in the human heart because we are created by God and for God
- 8.02.23 Describe how the stories of the early Christian movement help us to understand the beginnings of the Church
- 8.08.01 Show understanding that the Church is a living institution, both human and divine, gifted by the Holy Spirit with a mission to the world throughout history
- 8.08.02 The Church has special charisms that she receives from the Holy Spirit to accomplish its work
- 8.08.03 Recognize that the members of the Church have contributed and have undermined the mission throughout her history
- 8.08.07 Recognize that the Church's gifts and growth are evident through all periods of history in the last 2000 years
- 8.08.14 Show understanding of the causes of the Reformation, the rise of Protestantism and the Counter-Reformation of the Catholic Church to begin the inner work of reform begun in the Council of Trent in the Age of Reform from 1517 to 1891 CE
- 8.08.16 Describe the Age of the Modern Church beginning in 1890 as a sign of hope for society undergoing vast change through the rise and fall of totalitarian governments
- 8.08.17 Recount the Vatican II Council as the ecumenical council leading the Catholic Church into a place of spiritual leadership in modern society, addressing particularly the universal call of all to holiness, the vocation and mission of the laity, work of ecumenism and religious dialogue, the role of bishops in subsidiarity, and the current challenges of the Church in the era of global economics and quest for peace
- 8.09.02 Show that ecumenism is an evangelizing work of the Church in the task of creating unity and peace in the world
- 8.09.03 Explain how the Lutheran, Episcopal, Baptist, Methodist, and Apostolic churches are some of the churches evolved from the time of the Protestant Reformation and some are therefore called Protestant Churches
- 8.09.05 Defend the Pope as the leader of the Catholic Church throughout the world, the successor of the Apostle Peter and a sign of our unity 159
- 8.09.09 Explain that our respect for other Christians and faiths does not mean we deny the fullness of the faith Christ taught is found in the Catholic Church
- 8.09/10 State that in our respect of other Christians means that we can both recognize what we share in common but that we also need to be honest about how we differ
- 8.12.18 Understand that Jesus' mission and ministry are continued today through the ministries of the word, worship, community building, and service
